

Cambridge Primary English 0058 · Stage 6

C6-U4

True lives: memoir and biography

Non-fiction — biography and autobiography · 4 source-bound 30-minute lessons.

Unit overview

This 4-lesson unit uses the supplied read-alongs in their fixed sequence. Every lesson keeps one objective, one shared question and one evidence requirement across solo, supported and listening routes. Learners build towards comparing evidence across the unit's non-fiction — biography and autobiography texts.

Guiding question

What do these texts help us understand about true lives: memoir and biography?

Success criteria

- I can select accurate evidence from every read-along.
- I can explain how evidence supports an idea.
- I can compare what I learn across the unit's texts.

Learning objectives

6Ri.17

Tell apart texts written in the writer's own voice from texts told by a narrator.

6Ri.16

Comment on how different viewpoints come across in fiction and non-fiction.

6Ri.05

Compare non-fiction text types, including balanced arguments.

6Ri.12

Tell facts from opinions across different texts.

1

Telling your own story

Fatty Legs · 6Ri.17

Shared question

How does this text help us show the lesson objective?

Evidence required

One precise word, phrase, sentence, text feature or event, plus an explanation.

Source check: verified TBL transcript · 62,455 characters

1

Connect to the text

3 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Show the cover and title before starting the audio.

Teacher: Introduce the shared question for Fatty Legs without revealing an answer.

Learners: Share an initial idea and name what evidence they will listen or look for.

2

Read or listen for the whole text

8 min

6Ri.17

Read-along: Use the complete read-along with the text highlighted; pause only at a natural section boundary.

Teacher: Keep the objective visible and prompt learners to track the relevant words, features or events.

Learners: Follow the complete text and mark or remember evidence connected to the learning objective.

3

Locate the strongest evidence

6 min

6Ri.17

Read-along: Replay or reread the section each learner selects as the strongest evidence.

Teacher: Model how to point to a precise word, phrase, sentence, feature or event without supplying the learner's choice.

Learners: Choose accurate evidence and explain how it connects to the shared question.

4

Discuss and compare

5 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Keep the chosen sections visible while pairs compare their evidence.

Teacher: Use the supplied supporting objective to structure partner talk and invite a respectful challenge or refinement.

Learners: Compare two pieces of evidence and improve the explanation after hearing a partner.

5

Make the response

5 min

6Ri.17

Read-along: Learners reread independently or follow the audio while completing the response.

Teacher: Offer a spoken or written response frame while keeping the evidence requirement unchanged.

Learners: Create a response that states an idea and supports it with precise evidence from the text.

6

Reflect and check

3 min

6Ri.17

Read-along: Return to the evidence section for one final accuracy check.

Teacher: Check the response against the objective and ask for one evidence-based revision.

Learners: Share the response, verify the evidence and revise one part if needed.

Solo

Read independently and mark the strongest evidence.

Supported

Read with the audio, pause at agreed evidence points and use the response frame.

Listening

Listen with highlighting, select evidence from displayed options and respond orally.

Assessment check: The learner gives an accurate response and links it to precise evidence from the read-along.

2

Whose viewpoint?

A Stranger at Home (EBook) · 6Ri.16

Shared question

How does this text help us show the lesson objective?

Evidence required

One precise word, phrase, sentence, text feature or event, plus an explanation.

Source check: verified TBL transcript · 89,517 characters

1

Connect to the text

3 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Show the cover and title before starting the audio.

Teacher: Introduce the shared question for A Stranger at Home (EBook) without revealing an answer.

Learners: Share an initial idea and name what evidence they will listen or look for.

2

Read or listen for the whole text

8 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Use the complete read-along with the text highlighted; pause only at a natural section boundary.

Teacher: Keep the objective visible and prompt learners to track the relevant words, features or events.

Learners: Follow the complete text and mark or remember evidence connected to the learning objective.

3

Locate the strongest evidence

6 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Replay or reread the section each learner selects as the strongest evidence.

Teacher: Model how to point to a precise word, phrase, sentence, feature or event without supplying the learner's choice.

Learners: Choose accurate evidence and explain how it connects to the shared question.

4

Discuss and compare

5 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Keep the chosen sections visible while pairs compare their evidence.

Teacher: Use the supplied supporting objective to structure partner talk and invite a respectful challenge or refinement.

Learners: Compare two pieces of evidence and improve the explanation after hearing a partner.

5

Make the response

5 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Learners reread independently or follow the audio while completing the response.

Teacher: Offer a spoken or written response frame while keeping the evidence requirement unchanged.

Learners: Create a response that states an idea and supports it with precise evidence from the text.

6

Reflect and check

3 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Return to the evidence section for one final accuracy check.

Teacher: Check the response against the objective and ask for one evidence-based revision.

Learners: Share the response, verify the evidence and revise one part if needed.

Solo

Read independently and mark the strongest evidence.

Supported

Read with the audio, pause at agreed evidence points and use the response frame.

Listening

Listen with highlighting, select evidence from displayed options and respond orally.

Assessment check: The learner gives an accurate response and links it to precise evidence from the read-along.

3

Someone else's life

Bill the Boy Wonder: The Secret Co-Creator of Batman (Graphic Novel) · 6Ri.05

Shared question

How does this text help us show the lesson objective?

Evidence required

One precise word, phrase, sentence, text feature or event, plus an explanation.

Source check: verified TBL transcript · 12,651 characters

1Connect to the text*3 min*6Ri.16

Read-along: Show the cover and title before starting the audio.

Teacher: Introduce the shared question for Bill the Boy Wonder: The Secret Co-Creator of Batman (Graphic Novel) without revealing an answer.

Learners: Share an initial idea and name what evidence they will listen or look for.

2Read or listen for the whole text*8 min*6Ri.05

Read-along: Use the complete read-along with the text highlighted; pause only at a natural section boundary.

Teacher: Keep the objective visible and prompt learners to track the relevant words, features or events.

Learners: Follow the complete text and mark or remember evidence connected to the learning objective.

3Locate the strongest evidence*6 min*6Ri.05

Read-along: Replay or reread the section each learner selects as the strongest evidence.

Teacher: Model how to point to a precise word, phrase, sentence, feature or event without supplying the learner's choice.

Learners: Choose accurate evidence and explain how it connects to the shared question.

4

Discuss and compare

5 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Keep the chosen sections visible while pairs compare their evidence.

Teacher: Use the supplied supporting objective to structure partner talk and invite a respectful challenge or refinement.

Learners: Compare two pieces of evidence and improve the explanation after hearing a partner.

5

Make the response

5 min

6Ri.05

Read-along: Learners reread independently or follow the audio while completing the response.

Teacher: Offer a spoken or written response frame while keeping the evidence requirement unchanged.

Learners: Create a response that states an idea and supports it with precise evidence from the text.

6

Reflect and check

3 min

6Ri.05

Read-along: Return to the evidence section for one final accuracy check.

Teacher: Check the response against the objective and ask for one evidence-based revision.

Learners: Share the response, verify the evidence and revise one part if needed.

Solo

Read independently and mark the strongest evidence.

Supported

Read with the audio, pause at agreed evidence points and use the response frame.

Listening

Listen with highlighting, select evidence from displayed options and respond orally.

Assessment check: The learner gives an accurate response and links it to precise evidence from the read-along.

4

Fact, opinion and the storyteller

Will's Words · 6Ri.12

Shared question

How does this text help us show the lesson objective?

Evidence required

One precise word, phrase, sentence, text feature or event, plus an explanation.

Source check: verified TBL transcript · 18,914 characters

1

Connect to the text

3 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Show the cover and title before starting the audio.

Teacher: Introduce the shared question for Will's Words without revealing an answer.

Learners: Share an initial idea and name what evidence they will listen or look for.

2

Read or listen for the whole text

8 min

6Ri.12

Read-along: Use the complete read-along with the text highlighted; pause only at a natural section boundary.

Teacher: Keep the objective visible and prompt learners to track the relevant words, features or events.

Learners: Follow the complete text and mark or remember evidence connected to the learning objective.

3

Locate the strongest evidence

6 min

6Ri.12

Read-along: Replay or reread the section each learner selects as the strongest evidence.

Teacher: Model how to point to a precise word, phrase, sentence, feature or event without supplying the learner's choice.

Learners: Choose accurate evidence and explain how it connects to the shared question.

4

Discuss and compare

5 min

6Ri.16

Read-along: Keep the chosen sections visible while pairs compare their evidence.

Teacher: Use the supplied supporting objective to structure partner talk and invite a respectful challenge or refinement.

Learners: Compare two pieces of evidence and improve the explanation after hearing a partner.

5

Make the response

5 min

6Ri.12

Read-along: Learners reread independently or follow the audio while completing the response.

Teacher: Offer a spoken or written response frame while keeping the evidence requirement unchanged.

Learners: Create a response that states an idea and supports it with precise evidence from the text.

6

Reflect and check

3 min

6Ri.12

Read-along: Return to the evidence section for one final accuracy check.

Teacher: Check the response against the objective and ask for one evidence-based revision.

Learners: Share the response, verify the evidence and revise one part if needed.

Solo

Read independently and mark the strongest evidence.

Supported

Read with the audio, pause at agreed evidence points and use the response frame.

Listening

Listen with highlighting, select evidence from displayed options and respond orally.

Assessment check: The learner gives an accurate response and links it to precise evidence from the read-along.

End-of-unit task

Choose evidence from at least two unit read-alongs. Compare what each piece of evidence shows, then explain how both support the unit's guiding question.